BBYO is a network of hundreds of teen-led chapters in 60 countries throughout the world. For years, BBYO has played a significant role for NRE: DC Council teens in developing leadership and social skills, strengthening their Jewish identity, and forming new friendships with Jewish teens around the world.

BBYO 101

BBYO is the leading pluralistic teen movement aspiring to involve more Jewish teens in more meaningful Jewish experiences. Teens are often drawn into the Movement through social activities like dances, sports leagues, movie screenings, and similar events. In BBYO, teens are in charge; they plan and implement activities and do good for the community. As a teen-led organization, members also plan the year's calendar, manage chapter boards, and communicate with parents.

All Jewish teens in grades 8 through 12 are welcome in BBYO.

WHAT DOES BBYO LOOK LIKE IN DC COUNCIL?

BBYO DC Council is one of the largest councils in the movement. With over 1,400 members and 21 chapters, DC Council spreads throughout the District, Montgomery, Howard, and Frederick counties. Each chapter hosts weekly programming and ranges in size from 30 members to over 150. In addition to their own programming, all chapters participate in regional programs such as community service projects, sports leagues, leadership training, dances, and weekend-long conventions.

READY TO JOIN?
